“The Wright Brothers: Then and Now”

Presentation by Special Guest Speaker Robert Gerhart

Join Robert Gerhart, a Director of Engineering in the Northrop Grumman Advanced Design / Special Programs organization, as he shares his knowledge and perspective on who the Wright Brothers were, what inspired them, and how they engineered the first practical airplane, detailing his presentation with photos and information gathered during a recent trip to the sites the Wright Brothers made famous: the homes, workshops and testing locations still open for visitors today. Non-members and guests are welcome to attend.

Meet in banquet room. Order and pay for your food & drink from the regular menu at the cashier.
