(Enter from Marine Ave between Aviation and Redondo Beach Blvd)

5:30 PM Social; 6:00 PM Dinner and Meeting

Presentation by special guest speaker Dr. Jeffry Padin

DESCRIPTION: The arrival of new companies such as SpaceX, Virgin Galactic, and Blue Origin created a new buzz in the aerospace industry. These companies have decided to deviate from the classical aerospace philosophies that have been in use for decades and innovate their way into a competitive position. Some companies like SpaceX have even taken the lead. This briefing exposes a potential future for the aerospace industry based on current knowledge and facts.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Dr. Jeffry Padin is a Senior Engineering Specialist with Aerospace Corporation currently working as a member of NASA's Space Mission Assurance Team for the Dragon 2 manned spacecraft since May of 2016. Dr. Padin is currently resident at SpaceX observing and reporting to NASA all manufacturing and integration activities related to the Dragon 2 spacecraft.
